

Democrats are winning special elections 1

Since Inauguration Day, in January 2017, Democratic candidates have made big gains in special elections. Numerous districts experienced a large increase of democratic votes in comparison to the results of the 2016 presidential election.

Each circle is a special election

- Democrats flipped the seat
- Democrats held the seat
- Republicans flipped the seat
- Republicans held the seat

2

(Source: The Weekly Standard)